WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Prof. Owen Lattimore struck hard at his principal accusers when he took the stand yesterday for a second time in the Senate inquiry into alleged Communist influence in the State Department. He called the testimony of Prof. Louis F. Budenz a "spider web of lies" and said the former Communist editor was motivated by considerations of "personal profit." Senator McCarthy, Professor Lattimore said, has "debased" the Senate and "disgraced" the Republican party in charging him with being a Communist and Soviet agent.

Mounting tensions within the Soviet satellites will bring a "break-away" from Moscow "within the foreseeable future," Administrator Hoffman of the E. C. A. told the United States Chamber of Commerce. Former Chairman Nourse of the President's Council of Economic Advisers warned against piling up new military expenses "every time Joe Stalin throws a scare into us." We should say "nuts" to such threats, he added, and protect our economy by judicious expenditures. General Bradley told a House committee that the outlook in the "cold war" had grown worse in recent months. He urged extension of the draft law.

VISITORS ARE INVITED

WASHINGTON CROSSING, May 3—Volunteer guides from eleven well known garden clubs will serve in the Bowman's Hill State Wild Flower Preserve during the first 2 weeks in May. This announcement was made by the Washington Crossing Park Commission who stated that the following clubs will be represented: Penn Valley Garden Club, The Trowellers, West Chester Garden Club, Garden Club of Drexel Hill, Nor-Gwyn Gardeners, Country-side Gardeners, Bala-Cynwyd Garden Club, Garden Club of Philadelphia, Herb Society of America, Doylestown Nature Club, and the Gardeners of the Crooked Billet.

During the last two weeks in April, members of the following clubs served as volunteer guides: Emmaus Garden Club, Monroe County Garden Club, Four Counties Garden Club, Hill and Hollow Garden Club, Germantown Garden Club, Wissahickon Garden Club, Norristown Garden Club, Frankford Women's Club, Little Gardens of Malvern, The Planters, and the Old York Road Garden Club.

The most interesting and rare plants in bloom in the preserve at this time are the Frazier Sedge, Trilliums and bluebells, according to Mrs. Margaret Matthews, Park horticulturist.

Mrs. Ann Hawkes Hutton presented to the Washington Crossing Park Commission a check which she had received as the first year's royalties on her book, "George Washington Crossed Here." The money will be used to start a museum fund for the Park.

KUNKEL CHARGES DUFF SETTLED DEBTS FOR "A PALTRY 13 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR;" DETAILS
THE FINANCIAL BACKGROUND OF SETTLEMENT

By John Paget
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent
HARRISBURG, May 3—(INS)—A charge that Gov. James H. Duff's controversial public spending program reflects an old private financial dealing today spotlighted his battle with Cong. John C. Kunkel for the Republican U. S. senatorial nomination.

The six-term congressman hurled the accusation during a statewide radio broadcast from Harrisburg last night and intimated that 17 years ago Duff settled debts totaling $110,208.19 for "a paltry 13 cents on the dollar."

Kunkel detailed the financial background of the reported financial settlement and said:

"All this ties in with the general picture of Mr. Duff's gay and carefree methods of handling other people's money."

Kunkel spoke as follows: I invite you to vote for me for the United States Senatorial nomination. Unlike my opponent, Governor Duff, I would consider it an honor to serve you. Duff frankly and emphatically says he doesn't want the nomination unless his hand-picked choice for Governor, John Fine, is chosen as his running mate.

Duff has made it clear that he will refuse to run with Jay Cooke as the Party's candidate for Governor. He sneers at the nomination as "inconsequential" and "unimportant" under such circumstances.

What colossal arrogance! What brazen disdain for the wishes of the Republican electorate! "Upon what meat doth this, our Caesar, feed that he is grown so great?"

Unlike Duff, I am willing to abide by the decision of the Republican voters at the May 16th Primary. And, frankly, I want the nomination.

Duff acts as if he would be doing the people a favor if he consented to become their nominee. Is that the proper mental attitude for a candidate seeking your support? Why vote for a man who will accept nomination for the highest office within the gift of the voters of Pennsylvania only under his own selfish terms?

Why is Duff assuming such an arrogant attitude? The answer is easy: He wants to be the one-man ruler of the Republican Party in this State. And he cannot achieve his ambition unless he puts his puppet, John Fine, in the Governor's office, thereby turning control of the State government over to a ruthless band of county bosses of the type of John J. McClure.

In his dictatorial drive for power, Duff has refused my repeated challenges to discuss national and international issues. He has had to admit the truth of my charges. He has had to resort to vilification and name-calling in an effort to cover up my disclosures. Some days ago, he called me a "scoundrel," but gave no facts to prove I was one. He called me a "vicious liar" because I pointed out the well-known fact that he was using Indiantown Gap as a private preserve. He called me a "slow-witted rich boy."

Now, while I concede I can't compete with Past Master Duff when it comes to name-calling, I am happy to admit that I'm solvent and that I have, in my so-called "slow-witted" way, been successful in several business ventures. I was also fortunate in receiving an inheritance from my parents—an inheritance made possible by their industry and thrift. I live comfortably, but not extravagantly. I pay my bills 100 cents on the dollar—and I pay them promptly.

In my "slow-witted" way, it occurred to me that I should Contestants for the Youth Week poster contests were urged last night to get their entries into the hands of the committee as the deadline of May 13th draws close. The winning poster design will be on the tags to be distributed to the youngsters in the line of march on the day of the parade.

Maxwell J. Gordon is in charge of the poster contest and the contestants are advised to deliver their posters to him at the Delaware House as soon as possible, so that judging may begin.

Thomas Jones, chairman of the Youth Week Committee, presided at the session held last night in the Elks' Home, Radcliffe street. It was the best attendance at any committee meeting and from the reports given, plans are progressing rapidly.

Charles Richman, who announced last week that his prize committee has decided to give trophies to the winners of the various events, as well as the track winners, reported that the trophies will be on hand by May 10th and will be displayed prominently so that all the participants in the events may view them. It was also announced that charms will be given to 12 members of the winning boys' and girls' softball teams instead of 10, providing for two substitutes.

ONE MAN'S OPINION

By Walter Kiernan
(Distributed by International News Service)

The Republicans opened a "school of politics" this week to prepare deserving young members for electoral college.

The school has 25 students, one teacher and no federal aid . . . not even hot lunches, or penny milk.

The Democrats said "experience is the best teacher" but the Republicans said "not our experience" and hired a woman.

Up until now the Republicans have taken their politics mostly from men . . . No one knows who the men took them from but whoever it was can have them back.

As with most private schools, every effort will be made to place graduates in high-paying positions but a few may have to start at the bottom . . . say 25¢ of the 25¢.

But one thing is certain . . . it may be small but this won't be any little red schoolhouse.

Meanwhile Mr. Truman is planning a course of lectures on the road . . . They will be non-political except in content.

MAKE YOUR OWN SAUCERS

Have you been concerned over reports of flying saucers? Are you afraid they may be fearsome weapons, being tried out by an unfriendly nation, later to be sent against this country in a war which would bring an end to so-called civilization?

Possibly you have gone so far in your speculations as to believe they may come from another planet. Whatever your conclusions may have been, chances are you haven't been happy over the whole business. Well, just relax. There's nothing to it.

You have the word of Frank G. Tappan, professor of electrical engineering at the University of Oklahoma, that "flying saucers" have been known since Caesar's time, 2,000 years ago. You create your own, the good professor says, explaining it this way: "Due to impurities in the vitreous humor of the eyeball, or to scars on its surface, you can see small discs, saucers, cylinders, or strings of beads. They are particularly noticeable when seen against the background of a clear sky."

"They drift about in the eye. They are seldom in the center of the field of vision, and the eye turns automatically to bring them into the center. They move farther ahead and the eye follows, and you decide they are moving across the sky at tremendous speed. I have been seeing flying saucers myself for 50 years."

If that doesn't make Professor Tappan the discoverer of flying saucers, he should at least qualify as runner-up.

LESSON FROM THE BIRDS

The gulls are dying at St. Augustine, Fla. What of it, you ask?

They are dying of starvation, and there is a story behind their fate. Formerly the birds shifted for themselves, catching live fish as nature had intended. Then the shrimp fleet moved in and the birds lived happily without effort on the waste shrimp.

When the fleet moved away the gulls no longer accustomed to supporting themselves, are simply dying for want of food.

Thousands of citizens have become accustomed to dependence upon the government for support. They have become wards of a welfare state, which is a polite term for public charity. To attract their votes the government has promised them security from the cradle to the grave, and without effort on their part. Millions in this country are now living in subsidized idleness.

All this is being financed by the taxpayers. As a result, the government is going deeper and deeper into debt. Some day, when taxes are no longer forthcoming, the "shrimp fleet" will move out and thousands of citizens, without employment and no longer sufficient unto themselves, will be hopeless and helpless.

Everybody has ideas about how to promote the general welfare but too few know how to help domestic tranquility.

should traverse Radcliffe street because of its width and it being shaded in the event of a hot day. The question of traffic was also considered. The tentative route of the parade had been set up as commencing in the sixth ward and down Pond street to the borough parking lot where it would terminate. It was decided to set up the parade route at the meeting next Tuesday night.

Wesley Spencer, parade committee chairman, inquired as to the musical organizations which will march. It was decided to request the following organizations to parade: Bristol High School Band, V. F. W. Bugle Corps, American Legion Senior Bugle Corps, American Legion Cadet Corps, Clott's Accordion Band, and St. Francis Vocational School Band. Other musical organizations of this vicinity wishing to parade are requested to contact Mr. James or the Youth Week Committee secretary, Horace P. Schmidt.

Otto Grupp, who is in charge of the roller-skating contest made the ward and district leaders pick their own course. They decided on Radcliffe street with the 12 and 13 year old youngsters starting at Washington street and finishing in front of the Elks' Home. The 14 to 16 year old group will begin their race on Jefferson avenue and end at the Elks' Home.

According to Walter Miller, marbles committee chairman, the contests will be held on the tennis court at Memorial Park. The date of the marbles contest is May 26th (tentative).

John Paglione, chairman of the talent contest, advised the ward leaders to get in their entries by the 20th of May. The ten contestants will vie for honors at the Grand Theatre on Saturday morning, May 27th. The judges for the contests will be appointed by Paglione.

Stephan Midouhas is in charge of refreshments for the youngsters at the end of the parade. Midouhas requested help from some groups of the borough or vicinity in preparing the refreshments. He stated that the refreshments would be delivered to the groups in the morning for preparation and called for in the afternoon. Anyone or group wishing to help in the matter are requested to contact Mr. Midouhas.

The Bucks County Rescue Squad will parade and also be present at the parade's termination for any emergency. The Rescue Squad's amplifying system will be used in the awarding of the trophies on the parking lot. It was suggested that the Squad be contacted for its services at the track meet on Saturday, May 20th at the Bristol High School.

The ward and district leaders were advised to begin their eliminations and get in their entries to the chairman of the various activities. With the exception of the poster contest, there will be one entry from each ward or district for each activity. Alternates will also be permitted in the event the entry cannot be present.

The chairmen of the various committees whose dates for activities have not been announced will set their time and date at the next meeting.

Youth Week actually begins next Monday evening as the elimination of boys' softball begins. The girls begin their eliminations on Tuesday evening. Henry Morgan is in charge of the softball contests.

The committee has finally secured a leader in each ward of the borough and township district. They were announced as follows: First ward, Jack Price; second ward, Samuel Mastriani; third ward, Jesse Vanzant and Harold Loud; fourth ward, Peter Harkins; fifth ward, Renzo Girotti and Ralph Palladino; sixth ward, Joseph Roos and Frank Kryven; Edgely, Earl Dougherty; Croydon, Howard C. Taylor; Terrace, Harold VanWert; West Bristol (including Winder Village, Newportville, Maple Shade, Croydon Manor, Maple Beach), Walter Crawford.

tell what is being done on the survey in New Jersey. Anyone who is interested in children and child welfare is invited to attend this meeting. Plans will be made for an early start on the Bucks County Survey which must be completed before September 1. "The committee's reports will give the citizenry of Bucks County a fine opportunity to learn what our children need and to do something about it," says a spokesman.

When all county surveys are completed, the reports will be consolidated into a state report. The state reports will be the basis for discussion at the White House Conference in December of what needs to be done to give to the American children such services as will make them healthy, well-adjusted, useful citizens.

to be procured to improve the situation.

was stated by Norman Ryan, the secretary had prepared a plan to be publicly distributed showing the sources of income of school district, as well as the manner in which the money is expended.

Members and officers of the board were invited to a banquet to be held at Medford Lakes, N. J., May 10, in honor of the board. The banquet was accepted.

William H. H. Fine, tax collector, exonerated of collection of the capita tax for 1949 and was declared delinquent tax collector for same.

The board re-elected Lee VanGill as treasurer for one year. The motion was made by Lewis and seconded by Ryan.

The president of the board, John Gierthy, will present the diploma at commencement exercises and will be assisted by Carmen Mignoni.

Use of the auditorium was granted to the male glee club providing the date of May 20th does not interfere with school activities.

It was decided to hold the meetings of the board in June and July on the first Thursdays instead of the first Tuesdays, due to commencement falling on the June date and July 4th falling on the July date of the scheduled meetings.

The property committee was given authority to terminate the services of any employee, other than teachers, for unsatisfactory service and to engage replacements. Students purchasing tickets in advance for the Lower Bucks County Scholastic Meet at Morrisville are to be excused at noon.

Winners of the poster contest sponsored by the Bristol SPCA will be excused at noon for a trip to the Philadelphia zoo on a date to be decided.

The board voted that O'Boyle's ice cream only is to be sold in the cafeteria beginning in September.

Plans are progressing for the junior-senior high school evaluation during the next school term.

11 EXTRA HOURS A WEEK FOR LIVING

IN 1900, the average work week was fifty hours. Last year, this had dropped to 39.1 hours. Yet to-day's workers produce more than twice as much as their grandfathers did. Such are the strides that have gone hand-in-hand with the increased usefulness of electricity!

Electricity is speeding and easing a hundred-and-one industrial jobs in ways not dreamed of even ten short years ago. It is improving stores and offices, keeping homes spotless and cheerful as well. And these gains will continue.

Your neighbors, who operate this Company, have foreseen these growing demands for more electricity and right now are in the midst of an expansion program under which $54,000,000 will be spent this year alone, to assure ample electricity for every need in the brighter days ahead.

inations are scheduled at Doylestown on May 5th. Eight Bristol high school students will be taking such "exams."

On Saturday, at eight p. m. in the high school auditorium, the Bristol grade school orchestra and the high school band will present their annual concert. The orchestra, under the direction of Miss Marion Shiffington, is made up of children who have been playing less than two years. They will play five numbers.

The second part of the program will be presented by the high school band under baton of Arthur Hornberger. They will play several of the more popular numbers, such as "Carousal," "Liebestraume," theme from Tchaikovsky's Piano Concerto No. 1, and "The Huckle Buck."

A clarinet quintet and brass trio are being featured as well as a twirling routine by the Majorettes. A special novelty has been worked out with the band, and a speaking choir will provide laughs. Admission is free, and everyone is invited to attend.

NOTICE

Pursuant to the provisions of the Act of June 25, 1947, P. L. 1145, No. 481, its supplements and amendments, notice is given of the intention of the School District of the Township of Bensalem, Bucks County, Pennsylvania, to enact a Resolution providing for the imposition of a head or personal tax of Five Dollars ($5.00) on each resident or inhabitant, over the age of twenty-one (21) years, of the said School District.

The reason which, in the judgment of the officials of the School District of the Township of Bensalem, aforesaid, necessitates the imposition of the tax is the need for additional funds for general school purposes, due to the increased cost of operating the School District.

The amount of revenue estimated to be derived from the said tax is Thirty-two Thousand Four Hundred and Sixty-Five Dollars ($32,465.00) per annum.

The aforesaid Resolution will be presented to the Board of School Directors of the said School District for final action thereon at a meeting of the said Board to be held on Wednesday, May 10, 1950, at eight o'clock p. m. in the High School Building of said District, located on the Frankford-Bristol Turnpike, at Cornwells Heights, Pennsylvania.

The Resolution, if enacted, and the tax imposed thereby will become effective on July 1, 1950.

BY DIRECTION OF THE BOARD OF SCHOOL DIRECTORS OF THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BENSALEM, BUCKS COUNTY, PENN. SYLVANIA

HOPE TO START BALL SEASON HERE WITH TILT TONIGHT

With Burgess I. Johnston Hetherington tossing out the first ball, the St. Ann's A. A. baseball team will inaugurate the 1950 Trenton Industrial League season this evening on Memorial Park field. Game is scheduled to begin at six o'clock. Opponent for the "Saints" will be the West Trenton A. C.

Manager John "Spike" Scordia announced last night that his pitching selection will most likely be Dave Muth, former Bristol High hurler who also tossed them in the Bristol Youth League last season. Joe Elmer will handle Muth's slants. The "Saints" will have practically the same lineup as last season, with Fred Barbetta, "Chuck" Klein, "Rabbit" Palumbo and "Lou" Mari. The outfield will be composed of "Chick" Chalella, "Lou" Sassi and Bert Barbetta.

Bristol-Pennsbury Game May Be Played Today

The Bristol High-Pennsbury High game of the Lower Bucks County League, scheduled for yesterday afternoon, was called off because of rain. Coach Jerry Bloom, of the Warriors, and Coach "Cy" Bachman, of the Falcons, have agreed to play the game tomorrow afternoon on Memorial Park field.

The Pennsbury team has won eight straight contests, including four of the Lower Bucks League. Bristol has captured three consecutive contests, three of which were LBCL games. Both nines are unbeaten.

It is most likely that Harry Eisenbrey will toe the slab for Bristol, with Frank Barbetta behind the plate.

GIRLS' GAME CANCELLED

The Bristol High girls' softball team's opening game with Bristol Township girls, scheduled for yesterday, was called off because of rain. The game has been re-scheduled for Friday afternoon on the Township field. Coach Barbara Yerkes' Bristol lassies will play Southampton High tomorrow afternoon.

Adams, Morrisville, and Kathryn R. Hoxworth, Kintnersville R. D. President Judge Hiram H. Keller expects today to charge the jury in the fourth day in the trial of the Janney two tractor-trailer collision. The plaintiffs are Horace Allen, Vincent D'Agata and Joseph Dalo, driver and owners of the tractor and trailer, respectively, versus Samuel Boone, trading as Bucks County Farms Dairies.

The case involves two plaintiffs' claims and a counter-claim by the defendant.

Kunkel Charges Duff Settled Debts For "A Paltry 13 Cents On the Dollar"

curred to me that it might be a good idea to look into "quick-witted" Mr. Duff's personal financial background. This I have done. And now, I propose to present part of my findings to you as sort of a radio quiz show. In fact, my first question is a question to YOU, my listeners.

When you hire someone to work for you—whether it is to fix your radio, put new soles on a pair of shoes, or paint the kitchen—aren't you careful to hire a man who knows his business?

And how do you find out whether a man knows his business? By checking up to see what kind of a job he has done in the past. By asking questions.

Now, when you go to the polls and vote—friends, you are actually hiring somebody to work for you. For example, I'm asking YOU to hire ME, John C. Kunkel, to represent you in the United States Senate, and to vote for me as Republican candidate on May 16th. You have already a big investment in me because you have sent me to Congress for six terms.

When I ask you to hire me—you have a right to ask me a lot of questions. You have a right to know all about me. My opponent for the Senatorial nomination has a right to ask me a lot of questions—just as I have the right to ask him a lot of questions.

Your prize in this kind of a quiz program is a big one. It is better government for you, with more money in your pocket. And less money going out of your pocket in taxes.

Tonight, I am going to ask my opponent some questions. If this is a one-sided quiz program, that is his fault. Not mine. I have invited Governor Duff to meet me on the public platform. Repeatedly, I have called on him to join me in open public debate on the national issues of this election.

But Mr. Duff says: "No." He doesn't want to meet me—and you—in old-fashioned American town-meeting style. For my part, I am not afraid of any questions Mr. Duff has to ask me. You, my friends, can decide for yourself whether he is afraid of the questions I am now going to ask him.

You will soon see that the questions I have for Mr. Duff are all questions that YOU have a right to ask him. They are not personal questions. They are not trick questions such as "When did you stop beating your wife?" They are public questions—questions which concern Mr. Duff's managing of matters that affect all of us. Particularly, they concern Mr. Duff's record as a manager of other people's money.

Now there is a quiz program called "Break the Bank." For the benefit of any who tuned in late, this is NOT that program. But we are going to ask some questions about a broken bank. This broken bank was called the Pennsylvania Trust Company of Pittsburgh. It was located on Fifth Avenue in Pittsburgh.

The Pennsylvania Trust Company closed its door in 1933. When the final accounting of its affairs was made, here is what that accounting showed:

The bank owed its depositors—the people who trusted it with their money—more than 1 million, 200 thousand dollars. In the final settlement those people got less than 8 cents back for every dollar they had put in.

Eight cents on the dollar! Seven and 9 tenths to be exact.

Now, you ask, where does Mr. Duff come in.

The records show that Mr. Duff owed that bank $47,829.65. This debt was on a secured note. The security consisted of shares of stock, 240 shares of Carnegie Coal Corporation, 200 shares of Southern Hills Land Company, 15 shares of Carnegie National Bank, 20 shares of Texon Oil and Land Company, 100 shares of Carnegie Thrift and Loan Corporation.

Now for the questions: Is it true, Mr. Duff, that in the final settlement, those shares you put up as collateral for $47,829.65 were appraised for only $1,218.77—or about 2½ per cent of the value they were worth when you got the loan?

Is it true also, Mr. Duff, that you finally settled this $47,829.65 debt by a so-called compromise in which you paid $14,997—less than 33 cents on the dollar?

Is it true, Governor, that you endorsed a note—a note for $25,000—that you then made yourself liable for payment of that note—and that you got out of that debt by paying only one dollar—one sadly depreciated dollar—to the receiver of that bank?

Is it true, or false, Governor, that you endorsed still another note, one was for 25 thousand dollars—and that you escaped responsibility for making good on that note merely by paying still one more dollar bill?

In other words, Governor, when you add these up, isn't it correct that you settled legal obligations with a face value of $110,298.19—a paltry 13 cents on the dollar?

Tell us, Governor, do you think a signature on a note means anything? Doesn't it convey a moral obligation as well as a legal obligation? Or should all of us who may have signed notes—notes guaranteeing payment of a debt—should all of us be allowed to waltz on our obligations by paying one dollar when we owe thousands?

One more question on this matter, Mr. Duff:

When you settled these debts, is it true that the 200 shares of Southern Hills Land Company, which you had put up as part of the collateral, were returned to you? If they were returned, WHY WERE THEY RETURNED? Why were they given back to you instead of being sold to get more dollars to pay more to the unhappy depositors of that bank?

There are many more questions I could ask. These are enough for one political quiz program. I repeat that I only wish Governor Duff were here to TRY to answer them now. That is, if he has any answers.

All this ties in with the general picture of Mr. Duff's gay and care-free methods of handling other people's money.

In previous broadcasts I have shown you:

That Governor Duff inherited a

State surplus of 190 million dollars. I have shown you that Governor Duff spent all that, and also borrowed vast sums which will cost YOU hundreds of millions to repay. I have shown you that in spite of the 190 million surplus, plus the millions more borrowed, Governor Duff still did not have enough money to scatter to the four winds—and then increased taxes—

Yes, he increased taxes during his term of office 690 million dollars MORE than the taxes collected during the entire term of his predecessor, Governor Martin. And Martin left Duff that 190 million dollar surplus because Martin didn't waste money.

Now add all this up and you get the picture:

Duff—debt—and deception! Yes, friends, you have Mr. Duff's record as a manager of money. You have his record as a manager of your money.

You know that while Duff may have been able to settle his own debts for 13 cents on the dollar—the public never will be able to settle the debts he has piled up for the State at any such figure. The "average guy" will pay not 13 cents on the dollar—but 100 cents on the dollar, PLUS—for every dollar Duff has borrowed in their name.

Now this is the 64 dollar question:

How can a man with such a record of handling money go before the people of Pennsylvania and ask them to send him to Washington as their United States Senator, so he can "fight" the waste of money down there by the Truman Administration?

The place for Mr. Duff to have started fighting the reckless waste of money was in Harrisburg. Thrift does begin at home.

Just ask yourself, is a man who has spent and borrowed and borrowed and spent as Duff has while Governor—is such a man likely to change character completely by riding a hundred odd miles to Washington?

You know, and I know, that when President Truman read over a set of political recommendations made by Governor Duff, this is what he said:

"I suggest that the Governor of Pennsylvania join the Democratic Party. The Democratic Party is the sort of party he describes."

On this, at any rate, I agree with President Truman. Governor Duff's philosophy of spending—and more spending—that is the philosophy of the Democratic Party. It is not the program of the Republican Party. Any voter who wants a government—taxing and more taxing—that voter should support Francis Myers, the Democratic candidate. Myers isn't sailing under false colors. I have more respect even for a New Dealer who admits it, than I have for a Double Dealer who pretends to be a Republican, who gains high office under the Republican banner—and then double-crosses the Republican Party, scuttles its program and its principles, and two-times the voters who trusted him with their votes—and their money.

It is no wonder that Governor Duff does not want to stand with me on the public platform for open debate. He doesn't even stand on the Republican Party's platform!

Mr. Duff knows what the burning issue of this campaign is:

Honest, faithful, economical—yes, thrifty—handling of the public's money so less will be squandered, less will be taxed, and more will be saved for you, the American taxpayer.

I challenge Mr. Duff to answer the questions I have asked him in this broadcast. I challenge him to frankly confess to the Republicans of Pennsylvania that he is not one of them, that his heart belongs to Truman, that he could no more oppose waste and spending in Washington than he could stop himself from wasting and spending in Harrisburg. I challenge him to admit that his sole interest in the Republican nomination is to use—perhaps I should say MISUSE—the Republican Party as a means to get more publicity, more prestige, more money and more power for himself.

Now I would close this quiz program as I began it—with a question to you, my friends:

Do you want a real Republican to represent you in the United States Senate? Do you want a man who believes what he says, who practices what he preaches.

I believe you do. That is why I believe you are going to give your answer on May 16 in the form of a resounding rebuff to Duff, and join me in fighting your fight in the Senate of the United States—to get the hands of the spenders out of YOUR wallets.

Charter Accepted For Cornwells Troop No. 17

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, May 3—Boy Scout Troop 17 conducted a meeting on Monday evening. The session opened with an arrow formation conducted by Earl Eckel.

Scoutmaster James Pettit accepted a charter which was presented by the institutional representative, John Ferguson. The troop was inspected by the neighborhood commissioner, Warren Poston. The "Flying Eagle" patrol led in the "knot-run" game.

Among the guests present were:

Francis Rossbauer, Paul Schaumberger and William Kisters. Registration cards were presented to Mr. Ferguson and Mr. Kisters by Richard Wurst and Norris Chamberlain, respectively.
